

	Editorial	15	Barnardo's Education Community launched
4	Time to come clean Yesterday's school attendance figures show far more children in school than during the first wave last March to May, even though the threat is much greater now. The NEU has calculated that this brings with it a far higher danger for those working in schools. It is time for the Government to come clean and tell parents what Ministers and their advisers are saying privately, which is that schools will not reopen until after Easter.	16	Latest lockdown should not lead to lost learning says OfS
		17	COVID-19 infographic for Scotland returns
			Research
		18	The impact of secondary schools on the second wave of COVID-19 The DfE and SAGE have published Impact of Secondary Schools on the Second Wave: Initial Findings and Sources of Uncertainty .
	News
1	School attendance significantly higher than during the first lockdown	22	Recruitment and inclusion of underrepresented groups The National Governance Association has announced qualitative research into the experiences of people from Black, Asian and minority ethnicities and those under 40.
6	Ofsted publishes guide on what works well in remote education £135m to support T-Level students
7	Consultation launched on 2021 exam replacement	23	COVID-19 round-up A round-up of news on COVID-19.
9	Education Secretary launches review of children's social care	24	Smacking young children has long-lasting effects Children who have adverse experiences such as being smacked at the age of three are more likely to suffer from poor mental health and have behavioural problems through to the age of 14, according to a study led by UCL researchers.
10	Government announces more laptops to support disadvantaged pupils Defence Secretary hails support for military families
11	Call for cash payments for free school meals	26	Opinion Copy-paste considered Jan Willem de Graaf, Professor of Brain and Technology, Saxion University of Applied Sciences, Deventer, Netherlands, notes that mass production and, more recently, communication technology, have led to both scaling up and an exact copy-paste reality. This has led to an increase in total material wealth, but unfortunately on credit.
12	Education sector calls for priority in phase two of COVID-19 vaccinations Government must stop treating BTEC as an afterthought
13	COVID-19 testing in schools Schools in Greenwich
14	Bolder approach needed to make university admissions fairer

COVID-19 announcements

- 27 Government advice on COVID-19
Details of all new documents on COVID-19 issued by governments across the UK.

Policy papers

- 31 Policy papers published last week
Details of policy papers from government, parliament and think tanks.

Consultations

- 33 Consultations
There were two new education consultations published last week.

Delegated legislation

- 34 Statutory instruments issued last week
There were two new statutory instruments on education issued last week.

Parliament - Debates

- 36 School closures and support for pupils
Matt Western (Lab, Warwick and Leamington) introduced a debate in the House of Commons on support for pupils' education during school closures.

- 37 Free School Meals and food parcels
Labour's spokesman in the Lords on education, Lord Watson of Invergowrie (Lab) asked the Government what steps it was taking to monitor the quality of food parcels that were currently being supplied to families in lieu of free school meals.

Parliament - Questions

- 38 Answers to written questions
Answers to written parliamentary questions from the Department for Education, the Cabinet Office, the Ministry of Defence, the Department for Digital Culture Media and Sport, the Foreign Commonwealth and Development Office, the Government Equalities Office, the Department of Health and Social Care, the Department for Work and Pensions and the House of Lords.

Publisher information

- 58 Subscription rates
Writers and subscription details.