

Editorial

- 4 We still need to be cautious
With all eyes on today's Budget, we should not forget the large number of SAGE papers published last week that argued for a more cautious opening of schools than the Government has decided on.

News

- 1 NEU wants £700m more for pupil premium
- 5 Government's education recovery package
- 6 Ofqual infographics on future exam awards
- 7 EPI report: Disadvantaged sixth form and college students 3 A-level grades behind more affluent peers
- 8 UK automotive looks to ex-military
- 9 Reaction to plans for awarding 2021 grades
- 10 Students more confident with online learning than lecturers are about teaching digitally
- 12 COVID-19 infographic for Scotland
- 13 Education staff will not be next in line for COVID-19 vaccine

Conference

- 14 OfS digital learning review
The Secretary of State spoke at the OfS launch of its digital learning review.

Features

- 15 Capita win £1bn Navy training contract
How does a company known as Capita keep winning government contracts with a track record of failure as bad as Capita's?

- 16 How qualifications will be awarded in 2021

Simon Lebus, Chief Regulator at Ofqual, explains how qualifications will be awarded in 2021.

Opinion

- 19 Pray or predators?
Professor Jan Willam de Graaf of Saxion University of Applied Sciences, Deventer, Netherlands, asks whether humans are pray or predators and concludes that we are a bit of both.

International

- 20 Erdoğan's war against education
The latest chapter in Turkish President Erdoğan's war on education is an attack on one of the country's best universities.

Document review

- 21 Welsh Government response to Estyn
The Welsh Government's Response to Estyn's Report and Recommendations on Local Authority and Regional Consortia's Support for Schools and PRUs in Response to COVID-19

Research

- 22 Children, schools and transmission
Children's Task and Finish Group: update to 17th December 2020 paper on children, schools and transmission, (paper S1102), the Children's Task and Finish Group (TFC) paper presented to the Scientific Advisory Group for Emergencies (SAGE).

- 25 Higher Education settings
Children's Task and Finish Group: Paper on Higher Education Settings, for SAGE.

- 28 Impact of partial school openings
Impact of Partial School Openings, a paper by JUNIPER for SAGE.

- 29 COVID-19 and universities
Isaac Newton Institute: COVID-19 and universities, a paper from INI for SAGE.

- 31 Relaxing NPIs and reopening schools
SPI-M-O: Statement on Relaxation of NPIs and the Re-opening of Schools, a paper from SPI-M-O for SAGE.
- 35 Lifting NPIs and vaccinations
Imperial College London: Strategies for Gradually Lifting NPIs in Parallel to COVID-19 Vaccine Roll-out in the UK, a paper from Imperial College for SAGE.
- 37 COVID-19 round-up
 A round-up of news on COVID-19.
- 38 Poor will miss out on extra-curricular activities
 As many students face another term of remote learning, research published by the Sutton Trust looks at the impact of the pandemic on the wider university experience.
- COVID-19 announcements
- 39 Government advice on COVID-19
 Details of all new documents on COVID-19 issued by governments across the UK.
- Delegated legislation
- 47 Statutory instruments issued last week
 There was one relevant new statutory instrument on education issued last week.
- Policy papers
- 48 Policy papers published last week
 Details of policy papers from government, parliament and think tanks.
- Consultations
- 50 Consultations
 There was one new education consultation published last week and two consultation outcomes.
- Parliament - Committees
- 55 Funding and financial management of schools
 The Education Select Committee of the House of Commons took evidence from three civil servants on the funding and financial management of schools.
- Parliament - Debates
- 56 PM on road map out of COVID
 During his Statement on the COVID-19 Road Map, the Prime Minister, Boris Johnson (Con, Uxbridge and South Ruislip) outlined the crucial role of schools and colleges.
- 57 Awarding qualifications in 2021
 The Secretary of State for Education, Gavin Williamson, made a statement regarding the opening of educational settings, the Government's plans to help children to catch up and the arrangements that had been introduced for qualifications.
- 58 Education route map out of COVID-19
 The chairman of the Commons Education Committee, Robert Halfon, introduced a debate on the proposal for a national education route map for schools and colleges in response to the COVID-19 outbreak.
- 59 Online learning and schools
 Baroness Blower (Lab), the former general secretary of the NUT, asked the Government what progress it had made towards providing laptops and tablets to those pupils who required such equipment for online learning.
- Parliament - Questions
- 60 Answers to written questions
 Answers to written parliamentary questions from the Department for Education, the Ministry of Defence, the Foreign Commonwealth and Development Office, the Department of Health and Social Care, the Department for Transport, the Department for Work and Pensions and the House of Lords.
- Publisher information
- 70 Subscription rates
 Writers and subscription details.