

Editorial

- 4 Sexual abuse in schools and colleges
Ofsted's report on sexual abuse and harassment in schools and colleges is both telling us nothing new and still deeply shocking. Changing the rape and abuse culture needs the support of parents as much as teachers.

News

- 1 Ofsted review finds 'normalised' sexual harassment in schools and colleges
- 7 Week 23 school attendance
- Scottish Youth Justice Strategy published
- 8 JCQ appeals guidance
- 9 Calls to reintroduce face coverings
- UK announces £430m aid to Global Partnership for Education
- 10 COVID-19 infographic for Scotland
- 11 Universities boosting academic skills and wellbeing of Year 13s

People

- 12 New Education Secretary in Scotland
Shirley-Anne Somerville MSP has been appointed Cabinet Secretary for Education in Scotland, replacing John Swinney.

Queen's Birthday Honours List

Honours for people in education and children's services.

International

- 13 EI/OECD seminar on education recovery
Education International and the OECD held a joint seminar on the principles for education recovery from COVID-19.

Feature

- 14 The Online Safety Bill
Charlotte Aynsley writes about the Online Safety Bill and keeping children safe on-line.

Opinion

- 15 The bridge - Part 3
Professor Jan Willem de Graaf of Saxion University of Applied Sciences, Deventer, Netherlands, in the third of a four-part series, observes that dynamic systems and phase transitions also play a role in collective behaviour.

Research

- 16 Guidance on feedback encourages schools to prioritise key principles over methods
Schools should focus on the principles which underpin good feedback rather than the way in which it is delivered, according to a guidance report published by the Education Endowment Foundation.

Ofsted curriculum research review on languages

This review explores the literature relating to the field of foreign languages education. Its purpose is to identify factors that contribute to high-quality school languages curriculums, assessment, pedagogy and systems.

- 19 COVID-19 latest developments in VOCs and VUIs

Public Health England has published two more reports on COVID VOCs and VUIs.

- 21 Urgent apprenticeship reform necessary
NFER have today published a report on apprenticeship reform in England.

- 22 EPI analysis on funding education recovery
EPI today publishes a research note on the funding of education recovery.

- 24 COVID-19 round-up
A round-up of news on COVID-19.

- Document reviews
- 25 Sexual abuse in schools and colleges
Review of Sexual Abuse in Schools and Colleges, from Ofsted.
- 28 Unemployment, welfare and education
Let Them Learn: Further education colleges' support for the unemployed, from the AoC.
- Policy papers
- 29 Policy papers published last week
Details of policy papers from government, parliament and think tanks.
- Consultations
- 32 Consultations
There was one new education consultation outcome published last week.
- Delegated legislation
- 33 Statutory instruments issued last week
There was one new statutory instrument on education issued last week.
- Parliament - Committees
- 34 Prison education
The Education Select Committee took evidence for its inquiry into prison education.
- Parliament - Debates
- 36 The British Council
The chairman of the British Council all-party parliamentary group, John Baron (Con, Basildon and Billericay) asked the Secretary of State for Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Affairs, about British Council office closures.
- 37 Investing in children and young people
The Shadow Secretary for Education, Kate Green (Lab, Stretford and Urmston) introduced a debate following the resignation of the education recovery commissioner, Sir Kevan Collins.
- 38 Ofsted review of sexual abuse in schools
The Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for Education, Vicky Ford (Con, Chelmsford) made a statement on the Ofsted review of sexual abuse in schools and colleges.
- 40 Education recovery
The Shadow Spokesman in the Lords on education, Lord Watson of Invergowrie (Lab) asked the Government, in an Urgent Question, following the resignation of Sir Kevan Collins as Education Recovery Commissioner, what steps it would take to develop a long-term plan to help pupils make up for lost learning during the COVID-19 pandemic.
- 41 Ministerial statement on education recovery
On Monday 7 June, the Secretary of State for Education, Gavin Williamson (Con, South Staffordshire) had made a ministerial statement on education recovery. (See the report in last week's issue.) That statement was repeated in the Lords the following day by the Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State, Department for Education, Baroness Berridge (Con).
- Parliament - Questions
- 42 Answers to written questions
Answers to written questions to the Department for Education, the Foreign Commonwealth and Development Office, the Department of Health and Social Care, the Home Office, H M Treasury, the Department for Work and Pensions and the House of Lords.
- Publisher information
- 60 Subscription rates
Publisher, writers and subscription details.